1.0. JOB QUALIFICATIONS FOR ELECTED POSITIONS

1.1. PRESIDENT ELECT JOB QUALIFICATIONS:

The candidates for President Elect will be members of MAEA. They will have good leadership skills as exhibited in other positions on the MAEA Council or Board, or in positions in their school district or community arts organizations. First and foremost, this person must have good people skills, showing respect for others, and experience in dealing with a predominately volunteer organization. This candidate must be able to work with people of diverse ideas and effectively facilitate compromise. This candidate should exhibit good organizational skills, basic computer skills, and experience meeting budgeting constraints. The nominated person needs to be able to devote six years to MAEA. Two as President Elect, two as President with the second year of the Presidency shared in the roll of NAEA Delegate. Two years as Past President, with the first year shared as NAEA Delegate. They must be able to attend the Saturday Council meetings held usually in January, March, May, Fall Retreat, and at the annual conference. They also sit on the Executive Board and will therefore need to be available for possible Friday night meetings usually in January, sometimes in March, and all day meetings one in July and December.

1.2. VICE PRESIDENT JOB QUALIFICATIONS:

Vice Presidential candidates will be members of MAEA. Candidates will need basic computer knowledge, good people skills, organizational skills and the ability to work on a team. These candidates must exhibit good leadership skills either in MAEA regional or council work, or within their own community or school district. They will need time to attend to the needs of the liaisons statewide. This is a two-year commitment to serve MAEA. They must be able to attend the Saturday Council meetings held usually in January, March, May, Fall Retreat, and at the annual conference. They also sit on the Executive Board and will therefore need to be available for possible Friday night meetings usually in January, sometimes in March, and all day meetings one in July and December.

1.3. SECRETARY JOB QUALIFICATIONS:

The candidates for secretary will be members of MAEA. Candidates with working knowledge of Microsoft Word, email and internet skills, good grammar, and competent writing skills would best serve the secretary position. They must be able to attend the Saturday Council meetings held usually in January, March, May, Fall Retreat, and at the annual conference. They also sit on the Executive Board and will therefore need to be available for possible Friday night meetings usually in January, sometimes in March, and all day meetings one in July and December. This is a two year commitment to serve MAEA.

1.4. MEMBERSHIP SECRETARY JOB QUALIFICATIONS:

The candidates will be members of MAEA. They must exhibit good computer skills, working and an understanding of working in membership records, data base information. This person will need time to devote weekly to all council emailing, both sending and receiving. The in-coming messages often need to be sent to the “right” source of information. This person will need patience and time to get electronic information to our board, council and membership. The candidate will be expected to attend both Executive Board and Council meetings. This is a two-year term of office. They must be able to attend the Saturday Council meetings held usually in January, March, May, Fall Retreat, and at the annual conference. They also sit on the Executive Board and will therefore need to be available for possible Friday night meetings usually in January, sometimes in March, and all day meetings one in July and December.

1.5. TREASURER JOB QUALIFICATIONS:

The candidates will be members of MAEA. These candidates should exhibit good financial sense, the ability to run computer budget programs, and knowledge of investment strategies. The individual in this position will be working with a professional bookkeeper and will be the “second” pair of eyes in the monthly reconciling of the association books. The candidate for this job will need good people skills and be able to work in a team approach to maintaining the association fiscal policies. This is a two-year term of office. They must be able to attend the Saturday Council meetings held usually in January, March, May, Fall Retreat, and at the annual conference. They also sit on the Executive Board and will therefore need to be available for possible Friday night meetings usually in January, sometimes in March, and all day meetings one in July and December.

1.6. NAEA DELEGATE JOB QUALIFICATIONS:

The candidates for NAEA delegate must be members of MAEA. The candidate for this position will need basic computer skills, leadership skills and the ability to work as a team member. This candidate will need to be available to attend Executive Board and Council meetings as well as the NAEA national conference as a representative of the MAEA. This delegate candidate will also need to be available for summer Western Region meeting, and to represent the association on region or national committees. This is a two-year term of office. They must be able to attend the Saturday Council meetings held usually in January, March, May, Fall Retreat, and at the annual conference. They also sit on the Executive Board and will therefore need to be available for possible Friday night meetings usually in January, sometimes in March, and all day meetings one in July and December.

1.7. DIVISION CHAIRS:

Division Chairs should exhibit a willingness to work cooperatively with the Executive Board and Council. They need to exhibit flexibility with other volunteers and their available time frames. The candidates for these posts need to exhibit good team working abilities, leadership strategies, and respect for the diverse ideas and views expressed by others. The President with a simple Council majority vote appoints these candidates. They must be able to attend the Saturday Council meetings held usually in January, March, May, Fall Retreat, and at the annual conference.

1.8. LIAISONS:

They should exhibit a willingness to volunteer, an ability to work cooperatively, and flexibility with other volunteer time frames. The liaisons are responsible for organizing regional student shows, or the selection of student work from the region for the state student show adjudication. Liaisons are to be elected or appointed at the region level. If there is no active region organization, a volunteer may be approved by the Executive Board. After the region selection the Vice President presents them to the Council for approval. These candidates serve a minimum of two years with any change over to occur at the fall retreat. They must be able to attend the Saturday Council meetings held usually in January, March, May, Fall Retreat, and at the annual conference.

5.12. MICHIGAN YOUTH ARTS FESTIVAL CHAIRS:

August:

❖ One person attends the annual MYAF Board retreat, usually held in the first part of August. MYAF committees do their work and important policy issues are discussed. Begin planning the GTS tour schedule. Remember to schedule GTS into the MAEA fall conference slot. Arrange for display easels at conference.

September:

❖ Attend first MYAF Board meeting of the year. Begin planning for art workshops. Start communication with contact person within the Department of Art at WMU. Attend fall leadership retreat to discuss MYAF issues with liaisons.

October/ November:

❖ Use any time available at fall conference to discuss MYAF with liaisons or other interested members. Set up GTS with rest of student exhibits. Finalize and publish GTS travel schedule for the upcoming year.

December:

❖ Begin searching for jurors for the March adjudication. Usually two are chosen, try to have final choices by the end of the month or early January. Send reminders to liaisons regarding March adjudication schedule.

January:

❖ Finalize MYAF art workshops. Discuss the final schedule, materials needed and payment schedule for presenters with WMU liaison person. Make certain that workshop descriptions are ready to be mailed with the student packets.

February:

❖ Attend the second MYAF Board meeting of the year. At this meeting final scheduling decisions are made and most of the details regarding the Festival are ironed out. Review everything needed for the March adjudication. Send a disbursement request to MAEA bookkeeper/ treasurer to prepare the checks for the juror's payment. Touch base with the jurors sending maps and judging criterion. Contact members to help with the adjudication process. [2-3 is a good number]

March:

❖ Arrive at adjudication site early. Organize work area, put out directional signs and have all materials needed by jurors ready for their use. Check work in as it arrives; have assistants scan work for paperwork problems or other rejection issues. Meet jurors and walk them through the process. You and your assistants need to be available to help the jurors if they have questions and to remove rejected work.

❖ ART WORK SELECTION GUIDE:

- 100 pieces total [both 2-D and 3-D work]
- Try to have all MAEA regions represented
- 30 pieces selected for GTS [must be 2-D only]
- 18 pieces selected for Top 18 honors [may include 3-D]
- Must have all paperwork in order, if not, must be rejected.
- Work not meeting standards or not in good taste must be rejected.

AFTER ADJUDICATION:

- When all accepted work has been double checked, allow liaisons to view the work and to then pick up the rejected work to return to their regions. It is customary to introduce the jurors to the members at the council meeting and to have them speak briefly about their experience.
- Art accepted into the MYAF show is packed up and stored until it is time to prepare and sort prior to delivery to WMU for the exhibit.
- Shortly after the adjudication, the entry forms will need to be sorted and the master student list database created.
- Within one week, email the student show list out to liaisons.
- ASAP, email student database to whomever is preparing the MYAF student packets for mailing. Typically this mailing goes out by the last week of March.
- Order sketchbooks to present to the top 18 students.
- Photograph Top 18 work to post on the MAEA website.

April:

❖ Prepare the 100 piece show for the final exhibit. Frame the GTS. Sort and mount learning statements. Contact exhibits person at WMU and arrange to deliver the show. Touch base with WMU liaison regarding art workshops. Send disbursement form to MAEA bookkeeper/treasure requesting checks for workshop presenters. Find chaperones for festival.

May:

❖ Attend the Michigan Youth Arts Festival Thursday through Saturday.

○ Thursday: Attend the MYAF Board meeting, final details and instructions for Festival will be discussed. Students usually begin arriving on campus in the late afternoon. Gala opening performance/ welcome is usually held that evening. A meeting for all chaperones is also held Thursday evening.

○ Friday: Art workshops are held all day. Arrive at workshop site early to assist with set up and student registration. Help WMU liaison get workshops started and pop in throughout the day to make certain that all is well. Return near the end to assist closing down and to give the presenters their checks. Thank them for their service to our students. The Teacher of the Year awards dinner is usually held on Friday evening. The MAEA needs to be represented by the MYAF chair and the MAEA President at this dinner. Either the MAEA President or the MYAF chair may present our TOY and make brief remarks. Formal photographs are usually taken at this event.

- Saturday: The MAEA Executive Board meets followed by the MAEA Council. Plan to attend if possible to give a MYAF report. The MYAF chair and the MAEA President attend the Honors Luncheon held on campus. At this luncheon, the Top 18 art students are introduced and presented with sketchbooks in honor of their artistic achievements.
- Return of art work: After the council meeting, all levels of student work from all the various state level shows is gathered up and returned to regional liaisons. It is very important that all work be carefully organized and placed into the correct region. The previous year's GTS is returned at this time and the new GTS is placed into the road cases to begin its exhibit run. All other work from the MYAF visual arts exhibit is returned at this time. It is also important that every liaison be there to pick up the student work. If they are unable to be there, they should designate a member or fellow liaison to take the work back to that region. If parents or students are at the Festival and wish to pick up their work, make certain to have it signed out. In no case may any unclaimed art work remain at WMU.

June/ July:

❖ Close out the MYAF year forwarding any bills for MAEA activities at the Festival to the MAEA bookkeeper/treasurer for payment. [Be sure to include disbursement forms and original bills] Write and submit MYAF report to the MAEA Secretary. Touch base with the MYAF Executive Director to discuss any possible program problems or concerns. Return any emails or phone calls from members, liaisons or students who have questions or concerns about misplaced art work. Begin working on the exhibit schedule for the GTS.
